Director Larry Crawford

Minor Appointed Moberly Correctional Center Warden

Missouri Department of Corrections Director Larry Crawford has announced the appointment of Dean Minor as Moberly Correctional Center (MCC) Warden effective November 1, 2007.

"Dean Minor has a solid background at Moberly Correctional Center," said Crawford. "He brings 20 years of Department experience to this position. He has demonstrated leadership at the Department and in the community. I welcome Dean's energy and vision at one of our finest institutions."

Minor replaces James Gammon, who retired in September. Minor had served as Boonville Correctional Center (BCC) Acting Superintendent since June 2007. Minor began his career with the Department in 1987 as a Corrections Caseworker I at MCC. Minor was promoted to Functional Unit Manager at MCC in 1994. In June 2006, he was appointed as BCC Associate Superintendent, and was named Acting Superintendent one year later. Minor earned his Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration from Central Missouri State University in 1986.

Moberly Correctional Center is one of the largest employers in Randolph County, with 456 FTE (full-time employees) and an annual payroll of $13,950,964.
